

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 29, 2010

CONTACT: Lauren McDonald
301-623-1579 or lmcdonald@bozzuto.com

Bozzuto Homes Recognized With Seven MAX Awards

Mid-Atlantic Home Builder Honored a Record-Breaking Number of Times

Greenbelt, MD – June 29, 2010 – Bozzuto Homes, Inc. this year won seven awards at the 2010 MAX Awards (Maryland Awards of Excellence), put on by The Homebuilders Association of Maryland. The MAX Awards recognize local home builders who provide buyers with excellence in design, livability and value. The program also recognizes excellence in sales and marketing across the home building industry.

“It is always rewarding to be recognized by our peers in the industry,” said Tom Bozzuto, CEO, The Bozzuto Group. “I am especially proud of my colleagues’ achievements in designing homes that so successfully meet the needs of our customers.”

This year, Bozzuto Homes received seven awards. Collectively, this is the largest number of honors Bozzuto has ever received from the MAX Awards.

Industry Commitment Awards

Tom Bozzuto, CEO, The Bozzuto Group

Product Awards

Large Volume Townhome $350,000-$449,999

Franklin II at Shipley’s Grant

Small Volume Multi Family/Condominium $350,000-$449,999

Sugar Maple in Maple Lawn

Merchandising Awards

Townhome $850,000-$999,999

The Albany at Woodbrook on Charles

Associate Marketing Awards

Outstanding Associate Logo

SalesMark, LLC

Sales Achievement Awards

Additionally, Bozzuto Homes' Community Sales Managers were recognized for their sales volume:

- Mary Lou Corcoran $5 Million
- Charlie McAuliffe $9 Million
- Kristin Herlson $11 Million
- Bruce Fogel $21 Million

Fogel was also ranked #2 in the Top Ten for largest Sales Volume in the greater Baltimore area.

Lastly, Bozzuto Homes received two Outstanding Sales Achievement awards.

- Exceptional Sales Assistant/Associate of the Year: Judie Rosenthal
- Sales Manager of the Year: Bruce Rosenblatt

About The Bozzuto Group

Headquartered in Greenbelt, MD, The Bozzuto Group consists of six integrated companies - Acquisitions, Construction, Development, Homebuilding, Land Development and Property Management - that together provide a broad range of real estate services, which are also available for third-party clients.

The company is committed to providing quality housing for all, from luxury homes and apartments to affordable housing solutions. Since 1988, the company has developed, acquired and built more than 31,000 homes and apartments. Throughout The Bozzuto Group's 22-year history, the firm and its principals have been honored with numerous industry awards and honors, including being named NAHB's Property Management Company of the Year in both 2000 and 2009. For more information, please visit www.bozzuto.com.

###